Percy Jackson

Film Review

Percy Jackson is the son of Poseidon, the sea god if you ask me I don't think I want to be in a big hole with sharks and weird fish.

Percy went to this fancy academy for special kids. went on a trip to the beach where she had met Percy's father position. When a storm was coming in at first they thought a normal storm but it was a hurricane coming I right where mom got yelled at by Grover "sally watch out" Grover what was that Sally said the minotaur we have to get out of the car Grover said trying to get out of the crashed car we have to there and there is a farmhouse on the back hillside I need

The story was about a kid who was special and he didn't know why when he was about 7 months his dad left him and his mom but as he gets older he would think he knew what he looked like and things. As Percy got older he began to notice that he had anger issues and needed help trying to find stuff out.

Percy is a good fighter and a troublemaker when he thinks he is doing good, something bad happens and he gets into trouble he has ADHD and other mental health things I didn't think I would relate in a way but I did because at a young age my mom left me, my brother, and my dad.

they had a surprise at the front door there were very big dogs. The one reason they were there was to tell hades that he didn't have a bolt along Luke one of the other campers at camp half-blood had planted it there. When he saw hades he called Percy a lier and was They went to Olympus to give the lightning bolt back to the big three. Percy got to meet his dad for the first time and Annabeth got to see her mother Athena. Percy asked the man if he could do a favor for him and Annabeth and that was to get Grover back.

What I have learned from this is to stay away from people that you think will get you in trouble along with everything that had happened in this movie I think it all went together in a way and was good and way different from the book. The way that he just went to ge his mom was really cool but when he got hit by luke it was bad he nearly killed luke after that I guess the perks of being a sea god son is to nearly killing someone by drowning him.

I would recommend the rating PG-13 because it has some language and action scenes in the movie. I like this film because it gives more detail than the book. I think kids interested in history would like this movie more than an adult would just because of the ancient Greek mythology.

Rating system; I like this movie just because the settings and the fighting act like when medusa uncovers her head and the snakes turn the one girl to stone!!! I would give this movie like on a scale of (1-10) probably a 7 or 8

Short biography; the girl who wrote this movie review her name is Kelsey Frye she lives in Abingdon Virginia she is 12 years of age. She is in 7th grade loves to talk with friends and tries to help her friends with anything they need and whenever they need anything.

I think that the movie is better than the book

What do you think?
